

Huntington Chase Development, Elderly Housing

Garg was responsible for data collection, site engineering, traffic engineering, impact analysis, and surveying. Project included roadway design, drainage design, water and sewer relocation, storm water quality management, retention basin design, inland wetlands, flood plain management, landscape, site lighting, and public meeting. Garg also prepared property and row maps.

